

LEONARD RHODE

Is a Golf Professional from Paarl, South Africa, started his journey under PGA pro Ben Fouchee. After competing in South Africa's amateur circuit, he turned pro and has worked in the golf industry since 2012. Leonard gained experience at Yas Links Abu Dhabi, a top 50 golf course and host of the Abu Dhabi HSBC Championship on the DP World Tour.

Leonard is excited to join the Sahara team, aiming to help players develop their golf skills and passion for the game.

His teaching philosophy is to keep things simple, helping golfers solve problems on their own and make improvements even when he's not present. He believes golf should be fun, hard work is key, and these lessons extend beyond the game.

VLADA ALEXEEVA

Coach Vlada is dedicated to helping golfers of all levels improve their game with a coaching style that combines discipline, passion, and fun. She focuses on building a solid technical foundation while also working on the mental side of golf. Vlada's lessons are structured to be both challenging and enjoyable.

From swing technique to course management, she works with golfers to refine their skills and boost their confidence. Vlada aims to create a positive, supportive environment where players can grow, not only improving their performance but also deepening their love for the game.

Her passion for development makes every session an opportunity to enjoy the journey of improvement.